When you have your portrait taken you naturally want a GOOD one; to ensure this you must go to a place where not only the best appliances and artistic skill are to be found, but where also TIME can be taken to study your features, get their most pleasing expression, the most suitable light and graceful pose.
If the photographer lowers his prices too much he cannot take the necessary time to do his work well, but must run his customers through like sheep, trusting to the NUMBER to make his profit.
A sensible person will beware of such and prefer to go where fair prices are charged and every care taken to ensure the work turning out satisfactorily; such is the case at the "Gran Fotografia Platense" whose customers never having been driven away by excessively high prices do not require to be lured back by catchpenny reductions.

TELEGRAMS

TO STANDARD.

London, 20th.—The elections are over, and the final result is:—

|---|---|
| Liberals | 278 |
| Irish | 78 |
| | 356 |
| Conservatives | 262 |
| Unionists | 52 |
| | 314 |

The Liberals themselves confess that the result has surpassed their expectations. It is announced that some Liberal Unionists will return to the Gladstone party.

The topic of the day is the failure of the English diplomatic mission to Morocco. The papers attribute it to the intrigues of French diplomacy. The Times denies categorically that England asked for joint tribunals and free trade in arms, or the erection of fortifications at Tanger, or the starting of a bank, or the concession of telegraph lines. It says that the only object aimed at was a commercial treaty for the export of grain and live stock, which would have benefited all nations.

Paris, 20th.—The French papers deny the intrigues attributed to M. Patenotre, French Minister in Morocco, and doubt the sincerity of the English proposals. They add that the British agents have fomented disorder, with the view of getting a pretext to interfere, which France would oppose, by force if necessary.

The Temps states that the wrath of the English Conservative papers can be understood in consequence of the failure of Sir E. Smith's mission, as, their party being about to be ejected from power, they leave it under the stigma of a great diplomatic failure.

Madrid, 20th.—The papers rejoice at the failure of Smith's mission in Morocco. The Imparcial warns the Government not to consider the break-down as final, as the new Gladstone Government will make fresh attempts, to gain popularity. It adds that under Mr. Gladstone's former Administrations the most serious difficulties arose in Africa, Egypt and Afghanistan.

Paris, 20th—Pasteur is a little better, but his condition still causes some apprehension.

The trial made with "alpargatas," which are used in the Spanish army, having given good results, they will be given to several French regiments, to try them on a large scale in the coming manœuvres; and it is expected that they will be adopted for all the infantry.

The Catholic Monarchists, disgusted with the attitude of the Pope, refuse to have anything to do with the pilgrimages that are being organized for the Jubilee of His Holiness.

Vienna, 20th—The Tageblatt says that France and Russia have agreed to oppose England in Morocco and Afghanistan. It adds that this course will make England understand that her interests lie with the Triple Alliance.

Madrid, 20th.—The harvest promises to be better than expected. The vines promise to be better than last year: and in Andalusia, Cataluña and Navarra the vineyards are in excellent condition.

Rome, 20th.—Ellena, the Minister of Finance, is dead; and his death has caused great regret, as much was expected from him towards the restoration of Italian finances.

Sofia, 10th—The trial of the murderers of the late Minister of Finance, Beltcheff, closed to-day. Four of them were condemned to death, and ex-Minister Karaveloff to five years' imprisonment

Christiana, 20th Deputy Stang, a member of the Right, has been entrusted with the formation of a new Cabinet, and the conflict with Sweden is considered as staved off for a time.

( To the "Prensa".)

London, 19th (Evening).—Six hundred and sixty-seven of the 670 members of the House of Commons have now been elected, viz.:

|---|---|
| Gladstonians | 353 |
| Conservatives | 314 |

The remaining three districts will certainly elect Gladstonians, giving the Grand Old Man a majority of 43.

The Queen has gone to Osborne.

Sir Price Jones, the new Conservative member for Hanbury, was stoned to-day at Llandudno by the mob.

The well-known London Jews, Messrs Levy and Cohen, have given £200,000 to the poor of Manchester.

New York, 19th.—London Stock Exchange dull. Silver bars 39¼.

Tanger 19th.—Sir Charles E. Smith, British Envoy in Morocco, has been recalled, and his mission has failed. The Sultan tried to bribe him with £30,000 to sign a treaty drawn up by him (the Sultan), and which would bind England to support him with troops against all tribes and foreign nations.

Rome, 19th.—There is a great scarcity of silver coin felt here.

The Pope has refused to answer the French Royalists, in spite of the pressure brought to bear on him by the Cardinals.

Paris, 19th.—A fort with 9 batteries is to be erected at Havre.

Budapesth, 19th—Desperate fight at Grosswardein between labourers and the police. Twelve of the former killed and many wounded.

St. Petersburgh, 19th.—Cholera has appeared at Khorassan, in Persia.

Typhus fever and cholera are both spreading in the South of Russia.

THE BUDGET FOR 1893.

Mr. Hansen, the new finance-minister, has begun well, for his budget, which we published yesterday, shows a new departure in two essential points. It is the first budget in many years that has not grossly over estimated receipts, and also the first in which the balance-of-trade theories are not advanced as invincible dogmas. He begins by shewing that (imports having risen 70 per cent since last year) the country, so far from being ruined by this circumstance, is very much improved "in its commercial and economic position." This is a confession that cannot be regarded as other than of the highest importance, and hence we hope to see Mr. Hansen finance-minister in the Saenz-Peña government. His predecessor, Dr. Lopez, made Pres. Pellegrini congratulate Congress last May on the remarkable "decrease of imports."

We now come to examine the Budget on its own merits, irrespective of the good opinion we have already formed of Mr. Hansen. He puts down the probable revenue at $91,100,000 currency, taking the rate of paper-money at 275 to $100 gold. We are inclined to put the revenue even higher, namely at $93,000,000 currency, the estimates standing thus—

| | Minister. $ currency. | Standard. $ currency |
|---|---|---|
| Custom-house | 67,270,000 | 73,000,000 |
| Excise | 12,150,000 | 10,000,000 |
| Sundries | 11,680,000 | 10,000,000 |
| Total | 91,100,000 | 93,000,000 |

The Customs-revenue for the past half-year amounted to 12,100,000$ gold, and hence we think it safe to count on 24,330,000$ for the coming year, which at our adopted type of 300 is equal to 73,000,000$ currency. On the other hand we do not believe that the excise dues (including the new taxes on wine and sugar grown in this country) will produce as much as the Minister expects, and the same may be said of sundries: we consider the estimates are about 20 per cent too high.

While we are free to admit that the revenue altogether is likely to yield 2,000,000$ currency more than the estimates, we think that the expenditure will greatly exceed the figures put down in the budget. In the first place the obligations in gold are admitted to reach 11,050,000$, which at the Minister's rate of exchange (275) would be 30,400,000$ currency, but at our rate (300) would amount to 33,150,000$. In the second place he puts down War and Marine at 17,800,000$, whereas we think this is 10 per cent too low, and prefer 20,000,000$. In the third place no allowance is apparently made for extraordinary expenditure, beyond a statement that £500,000 sterling is set aside for contracts in Europe, this sum being apparently included in the item of 10,750,000$ gold for public debt.

Comparing, therefore, the Minister's estimate for expenditure with our own we find as follows:—

| | Minister. $ currency. | Standard. $ currency |
|---|---|---|
| Gold obligations | 30,400,000 | 33,150,000 |
| Interior | 13,880,000 | 14,000,000 |
| Foreign Office | 275,000 | 300,000 |
| Finance do. | 5,420,000 | 5,500,000 |
| Instruction | 7,345,000 | 7,500,000 |
| War & Marine | 17,800,000 | 20,000,000 |
| Extraordinary | — | 10,000,000 |
| | 75,070,000 | 90,450,000 |

The estimates sum up, therefore, as follows:—

| | Minister. $ currency. | Standard. $ currency |
|---|---|---|
| Revenue | 91,100,000 | 93,000,000 |
| Expenditure | 75,070,000 | 90,450,000 |
| Surplus | 16,030,000 | 2,550,000 |

The Minister's estimate supposes a surplus 6 times greater than we think possible. In fact we shall feel very happy if the surplus at the end of 1893 turn out as much as we hope. It is well to bear in mind that the budget now under discussion is that for the third and last year of the Moratorio contract imposed on this country by its friends in London.

Those kind friends will be only too ready to make what capital they can out of Mr. Hansen's budget. They will say—"Look at Argentina with a surplus "for 1893 of $16,000,000, or more than "20 per cent over expenditure." This will be sufficient excuse to urge the British public to rush in wildly and purchase Argentine stocks. Then will be the happy moment for the Baring guarantors to "unload" the £7,000,000 of securities in deposit.

But when it comes to the question of reducing the capital or the interest of Argentine debts, as done with Spain and Uruguay, the Baring guarantors will have concluded the liquidation of that firm and the holders of stocks will say that they have been entrapped. Then perhaps somebody will write to the Times suggesting the sending out of gunboats to Argentine waters, and, although no Minister in England will ever entertain such an idea, the position of British residents in Buenos Ayres will be uncommonly disagreeable.

THE LUSITANIA MAILS.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND

London, June 25.

In the House of Lords yesterday the National Education (Ireland) Bill read was a third time, the Duke of Argyll, referring to Mr. Gladstone's recent speech at Clapham.

In his address to the electors of Derby, Sir W. Harcourt says that Home Rule for Ireland, although at present retarded by Tory obstruction and recreant Liberals, will in the end surely be accomplished.

Mr. John Morley, speaking at Newcastle last night, said that the policy of the Government was a purely negative policy.

Addressing his constituents at Nottingham last night, Mr. Arnold Morley ridiculed the idea that under Home Rule as proposed by the Liberal party there would be any persecution by the Roman Catholics of the Protestant minority in Ireland, and appealed to his hearers to do all in their power to help Mr. Gladstone to carry out the great work he had undertaken in favour of Ireland.

Mr. Balfour, in his address to the electors of East Manchester, claims for the present Government that in the last six years they have carried more beneficial legislation than any Parliament of equal duration in history.

The Duke of Devonshire addressed a ticket meeting at Eastbourne last night, and said he admitted the possibility of defeat. If, however, the Ministerial party were defeated, the majority would not be a Home Rule majority, but one comprising persons who wanted disestablishment in Wales, the abolition of the House of Lords, or the taxation of ground rents.

Mr. Chamberlain, addressing a meeting at Coventry last night, when he had some difficulty in obtaining a hearing, pronounced Mr. Glanstone's address to be a disappointing and ineffective document, but said it was clear that Mr. Gladstone was devoting the rest of his life to the Home Rule question.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley addressed a meeting of workpeople yesterday in the yard of Messrs Doulton and Watt's pottery, in support of the African explorer's candidature for North Lambeth. Mr. Stanley's reception was not altogether gratifying to him, and, on cheers being given for Mr. Gladstone, he declared that he was in favour of Mr. Gladstone in everything except one point.

The British East Africa Company have informed Reuter's Agency that they are in receipt of telegraphic despatches from their agents at Mombasa, giving particulars of letters which have arrived at the coast through German territory from Captain Lugard and Captain Williams, dated February 11 and March 7th respectively. These letters contain details of the recent disturbances which have ocurred in Uganda, and throw a completely different light upon their origin, which entirely refutes the accounts furnished by Bishop Hirth and other Catholic Missionaries that have already found their way to Europe and been published throughout the Press. The Company understands that these letters will confirm intelligence previously received to the effect that the disputes originated in the murder of a Protestant chief by the Roman Catholics.

According to information obtained from a well-informed English source at Fez, Sir Charles Euan Smith is about to leave the Moorish capital, and it is possible that a man-of-war will be sent to Rabat to take his Excellency and suite on board. No political significance, however, is to be attached to the fact of a British war-ship being sent there. If Sir Charles Euan Smith's mission has not hitherto been attended with any conspicuous result, it is probably owing to the difficulties which, there is no doubt, have been thrown in his way by the Sultan, who has been supported in his opposition to the British proposals by French influence.

Paris, 24th.

The fatal duel between the Marquis de Morés and Captain Mayer, in which the latter was killed, is likely to prove more detrimental to M. Drumont and his anti-Jewish campaign than his conviction for libel. The death of Captain Mayer has elicited expressions of sorrow and sympathy in all the newspayers. Several papers, with French impulsiveness, go still further and traduce the Marquis de Morés as a murderer, heaping upon him every insult in the political vocabulary.

The Marquis de Morés was arrested at six o'clock this evening. The duel was fought under stringent conditions, which should have prevented a fatal issue, especially as Captain Mayer was an expert swordsman. The mortal thrust was made before the encounter had lasted more than a minute or two. The Marquis de Morés expressed his deep regret at what had occurred, and before leaving the ground shook the hand of the dying man. The tragic affair arose primarily, though not directly, out of a statement of the Marquis de Mores, whose Socialist views are combined with the most violent anti Semitic opinions, that no Jew ought to be an officer in the army.

Berlin, 24th.

Prince Bismarck arrived at Munich at two o'clock this morning. Many thousands greeted him with enthusiastic cheers at the station, and he entered his carriage to the strains of the "Watch am Rhein," sung by all. The long route to the Villa Lenbach was lined by torch-bearers, and the enthusiasm was such that the Prince was compelled at three o'clock in the morning to appear on the balcony and make a speech of thanks.

Vienna, 24th.

The interview with Prince Bismarck published in the Neue Freie Presse today created a great sensation in political circles, and is the subject of much comment in the newspapers. Now that the Prince has left, the enthusiasm his appearance called forth is treated rather ironically by the Press, although when he arrived he was saluted by panegyrics in all the papers. The report that Prince Bismarck asked to see the Emperor and was refused an audience though its truth is maintained by the Allgemeic Zeitung, which first announced it, is absolutely unfounded.

Rome, 24th.

The Italian papers thank the German Court for its reception of King Humbert, many of them saying that the favour with which Italy is regarded generally in Europe is due in no small degree to the esteem in which the King is personally held. Although the visit to Potsdam had no direct political importance, it is sure to exert on public opinion in Italy an effect favourable to the Triple Alliance, and the position of Signor Giolitti and Admiral Giolitti has been strengthened thereby. In political circles the journey is regarded as in a certain degree a trump card played by the Government, which will make use of it in the impending elections.

Dresden, June 24th

The King and Queen of Italy arrived here shortly after six this evening, and were met at the station by the King and Queen of Saxony and the Princes and Princesses of the Royal House. Their Majesties drove immediately with the King and Queen to Villa Strellen, where they subsequently dined with the Royal family "en famille."

BUENOS AYRES TO TUCUMAN.

II

The scene changes suddenly as you approach the boundary line of exuberant Tucuman. The hard yellow grass, the stunted trees, the barrenness and desolation of Santiago del Estero are beginning to mix with the fertility of the historic province. You can imagine your self passing the limit between the mud-colored waters of the mouth of a river and the green waves of the sea. The stream of Santiago desolation flows into the ocean of Tucuman fertility and soon loses itself completely. As you approach the station of San Miguel, which stands smiling on the confines of Tucuman, you see the first sugar-cane plantations. I can imagine nothing more beautifully calm, more enchantingly peaceful than these immense cane plantations, stretching in gigantic meadows to the distant horizon, upon which you distinguish, ever so faintly at first, the dark and frowning outline of the Tucuman mountains, tutelary monsters of the city which lies in the valley and which as yet is invisible. I remarked as the train rushed through the plantations, that the cane on one side of the line was green, contrasting with the rich mellow color on the other side. This difference of color is due to the difference in the dates of planting, and you can see by the different shades that every day the plantations are extending. As a matter of fact cane-growing is a paying business, and a very safe investment, as the locusts can do no harm to the plantations. As I stood on the platform of the railway-carriage this immense panorama of cultivation unfolded itself before me. The ripe cane was very high. It towered over the laborers and over the pitchers which the women carry on their heads, a custom that seemed to lend an African tint to this scene of exuberant nature and fruitful toil. The cane was even higher than the "peones'" miserable huts, which stand out here and there in melancholy relief in the clearings. It was an ocean of sugar-cane over which my eyes wandered, astonished and enchanted. The plantations looked like immense pastures, and really, when you come to look into it, the cane is nothing but a grass, a titanic grass if you like, but still a grass. With the aid of a vivid imagination you can see, browsing quietly there, some enormous antediluvian monster. If Enterprise could be incarnated, it would present the appearance of some such monster, some gigantic mastodon, grazing in these immense fields of enormous grass. But there are monsters, and very visible ones too, that feed on these pastures. You can already see them in the distance, like reclining elephants with their smoking trunks raised to the sky. These are the first sugar-factories you see. I counted seven of them, but there are five times that number scattered over the province and as yet invisible. These sedentary monsters, although outwardly paralysed, have inwardly all the activity of animal life. I have stood in the stomach of one of them, but I shall tell you all about that later on, as we have yet to reach Tucuman.

In the meantime we are rushing through these smiling plantations. Men, women and half-naked children stand at the doors of their huts, watching the train. We pass by a cemetery, and the spectacle immediately diverts the mind into another channel of thought. A burial-ground with its numerous white crosses is a sad sight in the midst of all this youthful vigor and life. It awakens within you an indescribable feeling of sadness such as probably would be roused in the soul at the sight of a coffin placed by the side of a cradle. I had already noticed several cemeteries along the line since we left Rosario. They are all the same—a well-built, in fact a splendid entrance, and the usual brick wall encircling the burial ground. Their very sameness saves them from too close a scrutiny, but if you gaze at them attentively—as you can afford to do when you are travelling in search of fresh impressions—they will appear to you as architectural monsters with the entrance of a palace and the walls of a back-yard, the mythological conception of the centaur or satyr, with the face of one creation and the body of another, driven from the harmonious realms of poetry to seek refuge in the petrified antitheses of architecture. But let us turn from the spectacle of these abodes of the dead, where

Each in his narrow cell for ever laid
The rude forefathers of the hamlet sleep.

Soon the mountains come in sight and become plainly distinguishable. The glorious sight absorbs you, entrances you, fills you with awe, and steeps you in an ecstasy, which only those who are accustomed to the monotony of the flat lands of B. Ayres can well understand. As yet you cannot distinguish the fearless vegetation which clambers up the flanks of these ridges. I shall tell you all about these mountains in another letter.

The peculiar noise caused by the train brought my fit of admiration abruptly to a close. We were on the Tucuman viaduct, a long and magnificent iron structure, over which we travelled at diminished speed. The dry bed of the river lay beneath us. Away to the left rose the domes of the Tucuman churches, upon which the rays of the morning sun flashed joyfully. It was an inspiriting spectacle, a veritable tonic. You enter the city in a majestic curve. At this distance Tucuman has an imposing aspect, considerably enhanced by the numerous and magnificent church domes. The mountains form an awe-inspiring back-ground. Filled with admiration you gaze from the city to the mountains, from the mountains to the immaculate blue of the sky, from the sky to the smoking chimneys of the factories in the distance, and finally to the scene more immediately around you, to the enormous trees, the exuberant vegetation, the thatched huts, the plantations, the grass, the men, women, children, horses, donkeys, fowl, carts and all the other details of this never-to-be-forgotten picture.

We are now within a few hundred yards of the station, a very fine structure. In fact, were you to judge the city by the station, you would rank Tucuman amongst the first cities of South America. We have arrived at the end of our journey, 1158 kilometres, which we have covered in 36 hours. Shortly after leaving Sunchales I timed our speed with the help of my watch and the telegraph posts and found it to be 60 kilometres an hour. But of course our average speed was much under this figure.

As you alight from the railway carriage a crowd of enthusiastic "changadores" rush to welcome you and your baggage with open arms. You soon find yourself in a coach, probably a tumble-down vis-a-vis, of which there is a great number here, and which has possibly seen better days in Rosario. "Hasta mañana."

Scaevola.

PARIS LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

June 11th.

The incidents connected with the Czar's return visit to the Emperor of Germany at Kiel, overdue by two years, and the Jack in the Box drop in of the Czar's nephew on M. Carnot at Nancy is a sort of diamond cut diamond game; a diplomatic hide and go seek amusement. The Czar's return call on Emperor William was "a thing that's got to be done;" but the political fireworks of Cronstadt had to be remembered, and no cause of suspicion; no wound to sensitiveness inflicted on the French. These latter were secured by arranging that the Grand Duke Constantine should be shaking hands with President Carnot about at the same moment that the Czar was exchanging friendly grips with the Emperor William. Thus Nancy took the wind out of the sails of Kiel—at least the French think so, and that is all that is required. Neither visit will affect the conditions of the pending European war problem. Russia must keep well with the French; she wants money, and it is on them alone that the Czar must rely. Far more important in the political sense is the visit and welcome Queen Victoria and London have given to Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria, and which will have a powerful influence on the Sultan and the peoples of the Balkans. The Emperor of Austria owes a return visit since years to his ally, the King of Italy, and they are not the less fast friends. It is the terrible risk that a power would run, by breaking the propped-up European, that keeps it profitably sage.

France is devoting much attention to physical education, that is to say to manly sports. Her young men have much lee way in this respect to make up. A foot-race has just been executed between Paris and Belfort, a distance of 312 miles, in 101 hours; 1380 competitors were enrolled, as the race is open to all comers provided they be French; 860 started, and of the latter 820 'fell out'. The prize was won by an ostler, aged 25, and the second best was a butcher's boy. The only stipulation was: to have your identity paper controlled at fixed stations, and then to walk or run according to fancy; the first to arrive at Belfort won the chief prize of 4,000 fcs. The most singular fact about the contest is, that the winners were simply amateurs, and the professional pedestrians nowhere.

Lovers of dogs and the members of the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals are at daggers drawn against M. Pasteur and the Police. The abnormal heat dangerously increased the number of mad dogs. Pasteur urged the issuing of a police decree ordening no dog to appear in the street without a muzzle or being led by a string, otherwise it would be noosed and led to the knacker's yard; every dog conducted to that massacre depot ensured the bringer a reward of 2 fr. Since the decree between 300 and 400 dogs a day are thus delivered up, and strange to say, not more than one per cent are claimed by their owners. After 24 hours the dogs are suffocated in batches of 25 | their skins make Russian and Derby gloves, and their carcases are remated into animal charcoal for the refinement of sugar.

Trade with South America is on the mending tack; business people are more contented and hail the break in the dark commercial cloud with joy. Argentina is one of the best clients of France. I met a leading and a wealthy Australian a few evenings ago, and asked him how it was that Australian sheep were larger and fatter than those of Argentina. He replied that was not so: in weight and condition the sheep of both countries were much alike. Australia sent no mutton to France because England consumed all that she could forward and paid better. Later on Australia and New Zealand intend shipping frozen preserved beef and fruits to France, and likely mutton also.

Another instalment of Victor Hugo's "Tourist Letters" has appeared, extending over the years 1834-1836; they are a sorry production, add nothing to his talent, and must prove a dead weight on his reputation. There was a time now past, when the Hugolators would purchase anything the poet put on the literary market; but that fetischism is now dead. Not much of the enormous 'bagage litteraire' of Victor Hugo will descend to posterity.

THE RAILWAYS AND THE POST-OFFICE.

The representatives of the Southern, Western, Pacific, Central Argentine and Great Western Railways and the President of the Clearing House Office, met in the Director General of Posts' cabinet yesterday, and by common consent of the General Direction, decided to adopt postal compartments in all trains, with the object of guaranteeing the security of the correspondence. Only employees of the Post shall have access to these compartments.

They also took into consideration the old question, so discussed, of the transport of post parcels, establishing the bases of the tariffs, and also exchanged ideas as to making them practicable, once Dr. Carles receives the data from the Clearing House, and the necessity of establishing mixed bills of exchange on the stations and towns in which that service is indispensable, in default of Bank establishments.

Besides these results yesterday's meeting had the no less important one of bringing together the representatives of Railways and the Director of Posts, giving each other mutual securities as to proceeding in a uniform manner in all things concerning the good service of the public and removing the susceptibilities that generally exist between those companies and Public Administration.

NEW ENGLISH BANK OF THE RIVER PLATE.

The following circular has just been issued by the New English Bank of the River Plate to the creditors of the old bank:—

The scheme for the reorganisation of the bank was confirmed by the Court on the 19th ult.; under it the board has been appointed (four of the directors by creditors' representatives and two of them by shareholders' representatives); four days from the date of confirmation the new company was registered, and the calls upon the shareholders followed. To these calls the shareholders responded promptly, and comparatively few of them have availed themselves of the option to pay by instalments. Sufficient remittances have been made to Argentina to redeem the valuable securities there, and thus avoid the imminent risk of compulsory liquidation in that country. The board await further information from Montevideo before devising some equitable arrangement for the settlement of the claims in Uruguay, upon terms not disadvantageous to the company.

It is desirable that the company should promptly resume banking business, for the following reasons:—1st. The expenses in London and at all the branches —although reduced are heavy, and they must continue to be defrayed out of the assets—which form your security—until profits accrue from business to meet these expenses, at least in part. 2nd. The prospects of satisfactory business in the River Plate in the coming season are good. 3rd. The connection of the bank has been suffering, and will continue still more to suffer, by any delay in the resumption of business. 4th. The assets can obviously be handled to better advantage by the new bank as a living concern. 5th. The prospect of early payment of the balance of your claims will be improved. The scheme, however, prohibits the recommencement of general business until one-half of the creditors' claims have been satisfied. To do this at once—without waiting for the realisation of assets, which will necessarily require time—the board recommend the creditors to take deposit receipts of the new company in lieu of promissory notes for the 1st and 2nd instalment of 25 per cent, due respectively the 30th September, 1892, and 30th June, 1893, such deposit receipts to be for one, two, or three years at the option of the creditors, and to bear interest as follows:

|---|---|
| If for 1 year | at 4 % per an. |
| „ 2 years | „ 4½ „ „ |
| „ 3 „ or longer | „ 5 „ „ |

Under the order of the Court confirming the scheme all new obligations of the new bank (which of course include its deposits) will take precedence of the promissory notes. If you accept the recommendation of the Board you will be entitled to receive at once (1) the deposit receipts as above, and (2) promissory notes for the remaining instalment of 50 per cent, with interest as provided by the scheme. Be good enough to intimate your wishes in the accompanying form and return the same here as early as possible, as time is so important.

THE SING ACADEMY.

Tuesday night's concert of the Deutsche Sing-Akademie at the Operai Italiani was a great success.

The Akademie has now secured the cooperation of a goodly number of Belgrano residents, who have their own rehearsals under Mr. Ottmann, in Belgrano, saving themselves the trouble of coming to town every Friday. It is expected that their number will be larger still for the next concert.

Jadassohn's 'Verheissung' und Bruch's 'Flucht der heiligen Familie', were the principal numbers for the Chorus: both are sacred music, well-known in Germany, and were rendered with very fine effect. The applause with which the audience received them is a well deserved reward for Messrs. Melani and Ottmann, who have taken great trouble with the rehearsals.

Mrs. Bode de Kunz sang Ariadne in Naxos, a very fine dramatic scene by Rebling, besides songs by Scharwenka and Fallemauts, the young Belgian master of the B. A. Academy of Music. It is almost useless to say that her reception was enthusiastic, as she is a great favourite. We regret to say that the orchestra was too loud in some of the 'piano' parts of the Ariadne.

The Orchestra played the overture of Saul, and some Miniatures by Williams who also rendered some new compositions of his on the piano; they are very original and ought to become well known to our dilettanti.

LA POLA.

We learn that General Mitre is about to present the public with a drama which he commenced many years ago; it treats one of the most important episodes of South American history. The principal character is Policarpa Salvatierra or La Pola, as she was popularly designated.

The argument is marvellously arranged for a patriotic drama. The young heroine was discovered by the Royalists in communication with the revolutionists. The Viceroy Samano ordered her to be put to death with her lover and a few other patriots; before dying she prophesied that "soon the liberators of her country would avenge her blood," which came true at the end of the revolution. As will be seen, the matter treated upon is essentially tragic and can give scope to the dramatist, or, on the other hand, can be legendary, according to the author's genius. Schiller may be said to have introduced into modern literature this dramatic interest: "Don Carlos," "La conjuracion del Fisco," "William Tell," and a few others. Shakespeare presented the historic tragedy, but based more on the novelty of occurrences and the originality of his characters than on the pages of mere history. "Henry III., IV. and V." can be placed among the first, and "Richard III." among the last; "Julius Cæsar" was a step to the dominions of the contemporary art.

General Mitre will not rise or pretend to such heights; but we doubt not by looking at his beautiful argument that he is adding another stone to the base of the future monument of American dramatic literature.

It is not strange that the author of "San Martin" should occupy himself with works of the present sort, as it is well known that the activity of his mind demands constant application and exercise. It is said that the author will keep to the very strictest nature of the drama, for which and for the description of the characters, he has consulted the very best authors and manuscripts which few save himself have at hand.—Prensa.

Ed. Note: We understand that General Mitre wrote La Pola when he was only 20 years of age.

SAVING LIFE AT SEA.

Mr. Editor,

Respecting "Spectator's" letter in your issue of the 16th inst. I beg to offer the following suggestion.

That if "Spectator" could manage to obtain from the captains of all over-sea vessels their position at noon, say of the 15th inst., as they arrive in port from North American ports or from Europe, and could continue obtaining this information for say two months, and then marking a small cross on an Atlantic track chart for each steamer's position on the given date and a small circle for every sailer's position, I think he would be surprised and interested to find so many vessels en route for this city and river, and by then doubling the marks for homeward bound ships in the same manner, he would find that the ocean is studded much more than it possibly could be by the 50 new men-o'war he proposes would be profitably employed in cruising.

Out of the usual beaten tracks one might lie in a boat a long time without meeting a ship, but in the steamer direct route this could hardly be possible.

By enlisting the good services of the officials in the visit steamer the Jenner, and getting those gentlemen to ask one more question, viz., "your position at noon on July 15th and continuing this for two months or so, "Spectator" would be more likely to obtain the necessary than in any other way I can think of. Shipmasters would readily furnish the information and be very pleased to see the chart when filled up, and it would also serve them to see which steamer routes were most traversed and enable them to judge of the probability of assistance reaching them in case of total disablement either of machinery or sail power respectively.

If "Spectator" would carry out this idea I feel sure he would be very pleased with the result and find his endeavours much appreciated by many.

Yours truly.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Dame Rumour did not go to bed till late on Tuesday night, and the old lady kept trotting round town with all kinds of stories about conspiracies, troops in barracks, the Radical procession on Sunday next, etc. etc. She was greatly assisted in her propaganda by the Argentine war-vessels in the roads making signals with the electric light. Her friend the Gold Eagle raised his head yesterday a little and "winked the other eye", which was interpreted by some very acute people as a hint that the police intended to veto the Radical demonstration on Sunday next.

The Deputies met yesterday, and Deputy Gonnet began the business of the day with a motion that the sale of 400 leagues of land in Santa Cruz to Señor Grumbein be declared null and void. It was sent to Committee. Deputy Ugarte moved that the President of the Senate be requested to name Saturday next for the Assembly to meet to scrutinize the Presidential elections. The Minister of the Interior then rose to explain the contract with Mr. Ferrari to erect the new Colon Theatre. Dr. Quesada refused to accept the explanations, and moved that the contract be cancelled. The matter was referred to Committee. After some other formal business the House rose.

The agents of the steamer Aquitaine request us to state that the news of her being injured by running ashore is quite false. She was not damaged in the least.

We thank Messrs. Mackern and Shine and Galli Brothers for late English papers. The illustrated sheets are full of the Gauchos from Buenos Ayres, sent by Mr. Edward Casey to Buffalo Bill's Show.

The Rosales Fund is still booming. On Tuesday night two young ladies dressed as Liberty and Charity drove through Calle Florida, preceded by a band, and their attendants on foot collected lots of shinplasters as they passed along. Half the shop-windows in town have a picture of the Rosales sinking, with the boats and rafts leaving her. Crowds blocked the pathways all day yesterday, looking at this sad picture.

Several corpses have been washed ashore at Polonio, but they have not been identified as any of the ill-fated crew of the Rosales.

A regatta in Dock Three is being organized by all the boating Clubs, for the Rosales Fund. This is an excellent idea, and will bring in a pile of shinplasters. The admission charge should be low, to ensure a thundering success.

The only mails to-day are for Asuncion and Uruguay at 9 a.m., and Montevideo at 4 p.m.

There will be a rousing treat at the San Martin Theatre to-night, when Cavalleria Rusticana is announced for the first time.

We again remind our North American readers of the meeting at their church to night.

The following are the numbers drawn yesterday in the Montevidean Lottery: 7653, 20,000; 3601, 1000; 4436, 2842, 500 each; 2642, 8011, 9916, 200 each; 9937, 4112, 9348, 9277, 5918, 9512, 4912, 100 each.

Those persons who have resolved to participate in the expedition to be guided by Mr. Gustavus Niederlein, and others that may wish to join, with the purpose of collecting the products of Misiones, Corrientes, Chaco Austral and Formosa, to be exhibited in the grand Chicago Exposition to be held in commemoration of the fourth centenary of the discovery of the New World, are called to present themselves before next Friday (to-morrow) at the office of the "Comision Argentina de la Exposicion de Chicago," Calle Peru No. 260.

We had a letter last week from our old friend, Don Carlos Ledger, who is now residing at Goulburn, near Sydney, Australia. We regret to say that Mrs. Ledger died of influenza, and Mr. Ledger had just recovered from a severe attack. He sends "recuerdos" to Don Benjamin Zorrilla and other friends in Argentina.

We thank Beaupre for his kind contribution on naval matters.

The Brazilian Federals crossed the Banda Oriental frontier the other day and cut a couple of throats. The Mount papers say that this is "un hecho extraordinariamente grave" So it is: for the unfortunate victims; but its international importance will not keep the statesmen of either country awake at night. Nevertheless, troops have been sent from Montevideo to the frontier, to look after the proud Brazilian invaders.

The celebrated prima donna, Señora Bianchi Montaldo makes her debut tonight at the National Theatre in grand old Norma, in which two other debutants will also appear, the tenor Señor Avedano and Sta. Martelli. There will be a crowded house, as the three new singers are all said to be very good indeed.

Everybody is delighted at the prospect of soon having nickel money to replace the present small change rags. It is hoped that Congress will not potter long over the matter.

More squibs from the Great Republic:

"A man is the architect of his own reputation—and often puts up a job no other man would take off his hands.

"So you went to sing in the choir?" 'Yes.' 'What part?' 'Well, I went in as first base, but they changed it to short stop when they heard my voice.'

Another attempt to "do" the Customs by smuggling in a lot of that exquisite stuff Brazilian tobacco was detected yesterday, and some of the Aduana clerks are in hot water in connection with the affair.

A fresh find of iron is denounced in San Luis. We hope it is good. The lucky discoverers, of course, say it is as good as good can be.

At the weekly meeting of the Zoos on Monday the Committee had to perform the disagreeable duty of expelling a member from the Society. What this unlucky Zoo did to merit this severe punishment we do not know; but his conduct is described as "desderoso."

An employee of the Congo Free State writes that he had in his service a black man who was almost always accompanied by an ape, of whom he seemed very fond. One day the native appeared without the animal. "What have you done with your monkey?" asked the white man. "Monkey? Me ate him up!" "You ate him! Are monkeys good to eat, then?" "Um—taste same like white man!" said the negro, with an air of keen appreciation.

It now appears that the destruction of the Franklin Library at San Juan was the work of an incendiary, as some of the books saved are found to be saturated with turpentine. The police are looking for the dastardly perpetrator, but are not very likely to find him.

The public will have a chance to-day to get a look at the new Chilian cruiser, President Pinto. She will enter Dock 3 and remain for a few days. Chile

Hayward's Paste Dip

The best test of a Sheep Dip

PRACTICAL RESULTS OF USING A RELIABLE DIP WHICH CURES THE SCAB AND IMPROVES THE WOOL.

The following testimonial is received from Messrs Ronald & Rogers, the celebrated Brokers for River Plate wools at Liverpool who sold a number of lots of wool from some of the largest Estancieros in the River Plate.

COPY TESTIMONIAL

Telegraphic Address—Ronald, Liverpool, Exchange Chambers, Bixteth Street, Liverpool, 19th Feb. 1892.

Dear Sirs—
Amongst the River Plate Wools which we have sold here this season, our attention has been called to several clips which had been treated with Hayward's "Paste" Sheep Dip, and we have pleasure in testifying to the freedom from scab, and handsome lustrous appearance of these wools, which we consider materially assisted in their obtaining such very good prices.

ON 'CHANGE.

Wednesday, July 20.

The absurd rumors about conspiracies and revolution, propagated in the columns of the Press and exaggerated in the knots of brokers and members round the pillars of the hall, managed to stem the ebb in the gold market. All are unanimous in their conviction that there is not a shadow of foundation to the reports in circulation, yet all seem to apprehend that something is brewing and began taking in sail to-day. The result was a violent revulsion in the gold speculation and a sharp rise in the premium at the first ring. There can be no doubt that for several days past the troops outside the centre of the city have been confined to barracks; it is also known that regiments under orders to start immediately for distant quarters have received counter-orders and must now remain here. Meantime, the tone of the opposition press is more virulent than ever, and it looks as if we are again on the eve of a fresh declaration of state of siege. The market pursues the even tenor of its way, and though it does not relish the prospect of another state of siege, from purely Constitutional and Republican principles, it cannot deny that the recent experience of veiled dictatorship from 2nd April to the beginning of this month was satisfactory under many respects; it would be very unfortunate indeed if the market were to become again a prey to political agitation, subversive rumours and nightly alarms. One would imagine that all these rumours are got up for the special purpose of disturbing the equanimity of the commercial body and to put up the price of gold, for the political glass is high and fixed at fair weather, now that the Presidential question has been settled.

Thirteen thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the price opened at $52.30, rose to $52.90, and closed hard at $52.80, say 224.41½ premium. One thousand sovereigns were sold; the price opened at $16.30, rose to $16.40, and closed at $16.38, say 225½ premium. The speculation ruled very bullish all morning and many parties began to buy back on the strength of the political rumors rampant in the hall. Nobody believes these reports, yet all are influenced by them, and distrust is again raising its head.

Patriotic Bonds were dull, but steady; prices closed at 71.30 for cash and 71.20 for the end of the month. Next to nothing was done in Internal Bonds at 63.30. There was quite a spurt in shares of the Catalinas Wharves Company: over ten thousand shares sold, prices closing at 9.80 for cash and end of month and at 10 for to-morrow and end of August. A few shares of La Previsora were quoted at 27. Municipal Lottery Bonds shot up to 54, an advance of 3 points. La Plata Cedulas were steady at 29.80. There is a brisker demand for Bonos of the La Plata Mortgage Bank, in view of the new bill before the La Plata Legislature: it is argued that Cédulas will fall and Bonos rise if the Bill is sanctioned.

Exchange continued in "statu quo" this morning. Discounts were easy.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day:—

The Board of Railways have proposed Mr. Julio Ringuelet to the Minister of the Interior as manager of the Dean Funes-Chilecito and Chumbicha-Catamarca Railways. The name of the proposed manager is familiar in railway circles.

Messrs. A. Pozzo and Co., as agents of a syndicate of foreign capitalists, have proposed to the National Government to colonize in the territory of Misiones all those so-called 'sobrantes' of private properties; these 'sobrantes' are lots of land belonging to the State, and lying between private estates.

The local Board of the Villa Maria Rufino Railway Company have sent to the National Government sundry plans for the improvement and repair of the permanent way between kilometres 225 and 227.

The manager of the Bieckert Brewery Company has applied to the Government for several sites at the foot of the streets leading to the docks, to build beer-gardens and chalets, restaurants and bar-rooms; the buildings to be 8 metres by 16 metres.

We have pleasure in announcing the formation of a new firm of contractors, Messrs. Liddell, Sheard & Co. They are well known through having been connected with important railway extension works in this country.

There was a table on the Bolsa to-day literally covered with Provincial Bank bonos, or notes or certificates, and large sales made at 39 and 39½. All those notes were quite new, and are the type and shape of the Nat. dollars at present in circulation.

Telegrams were received to-day from London announcing the stoppage of all coal shipments to the Plate, in view of the great fall in the price of coal in Buenos Ayres.

Mr. Kelsey sold to-day another lot of San Blas wool, which has arrived in the Joven Arturo. The wool comes from the estancia Tres Bonetes, and only fetched 68½ per 10 kilos.

The s.s. Mercurio, we hear, has arrived from Montevideo, and has been offered to the Government for £15,000; she cost £30,000 stg. The Government has declined to buy her, and she will again be put on the Patagones route.

Although the Minister of Hacienda yesterday gave orders to the Caja de Conversion to pay the bond-holders their coupons and cheques, the Caja de Conversion paid nothing to-day, to the great annoyance of many bond-holders who went there to collect their money. The delay in this business is attributable not to the Government nor to the Minister of Hacienda but to other sources.

It was generally said on 'Change to-day that, amongst the many reformatory articles in the new Provincial Mortgage Bank project, there will be a clause prohibiting the Bank paying Bonos to coupon holders unless the Cedulas to which the coupons belong are produced at the Bank. If this clause is passed, all European Cedula-holders will have to send their Cedulas out here, and no more Cedulas can be held in Europe.

We hear that sales of land in Bragado and in La Gama have been made under foreclosure by the Mortgage Bank, the purchaser paying cash down and not cedulas for the property.

Emprestitos ruled very quiet to-day, whilst speculation seemed to run into Catalinas. Nevertheless, prices for both Emprestitos are very firm, and we hear that a syndicate is formed to buy up a large lot for the end of September, and already, several large lots have been bought for that date; as the price of both stocks is low it is thought that the business will prove a good one.

Several fine houses in Calle Callao are now put up at auction, princely residences, the upset price being about 100.000 $m/n$. The number of grand private residences in this city is attracting notice; some of these palatial residences cost over half a million of nats. How many are there in B. Ayres who can afford to live in a house that cost over five hundred thousand dollars?

All the Bolsa readers of the newspapers complain of the papers filling up column after column with names of parties subscribing fifty cents and even under to the Rosales fund. We certainly think the brokers are right, and that such extra publications are an abuse of editorial charity.

Several well-known Bolsa men have given up the ring and its charms and taken to vine growing and wine making, and with such success that we hear of one party who has now a handsome rental from his "bodega" in the suburbs.

The sale of a pair of Russian carriage horses, sent from here to Rio, at 6000$ gold, is reported. This shows what a good market Rio is for swell carriage horses.

The Banco Nacion has opened a new branch in Villaguay, Entre Rios. We should like to know how many branches this bank has opened and running now. The general belief is that next weak point of this bank is its branches, and that the fewer branches it has the better for the head house.

Subscription lists for the widow of our old friend Mr. Groves, of the Southern Railway, were passed round on 'Change to-day. Poor Mr. Groves was a universal favourite, and we all remember how he was cut down years ago in the revolution, all because he refused to put on a special train.

Mr. Hansen, our Minister of Hacienda, will receive the thanks of the public if he does away with all the small cents notes and supplies the market with nickel coinage. It is a reform badly wanted, as there is not in this wide world a more disreputable-looking thing than a much used five or ten cents bank note, which one has to accept from the butcher in the market or the guard on tramway.

The news from Montevideo to-day respecting the Moratorium of the English Bank is favorable. The Committee of Legislature has reported in favour of the measure, so we suppose it will be passed and the liquidators will now have a further extension of time to realize some of the assets and pay a dividend to the creditors. The bank here opens on first August and the statutes and papers will all be passed and approved this week. This is accepted by all as the very best news for this market and an unerring sign of its improvement. All the old clients of the English Bank here will be only too glad to open their accounts current with the new bank, as there is no one more popular in this market than Mr. Jones, the manager, who has worked so untiringly and so successfully in closing the liquidation here.

Montevideo, to judge by the statistics just received, must be monstrously hard up. 1,749 properties mortgaged in the last six months for 4,199,410 $m/n$ gold. Now we all know that the interest there is nothing under 12 per cent. In the city of Montevideo alone 914 houses mortgaged for 2,208,473 gold, and yet in presence of these sad facts we hear the banks down there are so retrograde that they positively allow no interest on deposits in account current. In the town of Colonia 101 mortgages for over a million pats. gold, and off in Tacuarembo 60 mortgages for the same amount. We did hope that things in Montevideo were on the mend, but these mortgage figures startle us.

Mr. Thomas Vallée has written to the Government urging the expediency of building a road from General Acha in the Pampa Central to Chus-Malal in the Neuquen territory. The writer says that such a road would reduce the consumption of Chilian goods, whilst increasing the native production, as by a good road goods could be easily conveyed from Bahia Blanca to General Acha or Hucal by rail and thence along a good road of one hundred leagues to Chus-Malal. In spite of all these arguments, we believe that the Neuquen will go to the heavier and cheaper market, which is Chile.

Engineer Gmo. Dominico has reported favorably on the plans of the Transandine Railway Company for tunnels of the type of the Navarro and Cuevas borings.

Mr. Peter Whelan, the well-known estanciero, has bought a property, adjoining his estancia San Pedro, in Rodriguez, at the rate of 300$ per square.

In the London papers we see the following passengers booked for the Plate:—

"Per Pacific Steam Navigation Company's Royal Mail steamer Lusitania, from Liverpool, June 22—

"For Buenos Ayres.—Messrs F K Mace, C L Lawson, Manuel Maddalina, Luis Husson, Patrick Peppard, M Heferman, Mrs Kennedy, Miss Emile Heiman, Miss Flood.

"Per Royal Mail Steam Packet Company's steamer Magdalena, to sail from Southampton June 30—

"For Buenos Ayres.—Messrs de Candia (2), Capt Packe, R N., Mrs Packe, Mr G A Packe, Miss Sutlees, Messrs M J Shepherd, M Levyshon, J van Deurs, J Rogers, M Findlay and man-servant, Mr and Mrs Begg and child.

"For Montevideo—Mr H Lamond."

Complete stand-still is reported at all the produce markets. Maize continues active, but wheat and wool are very dull. Maize is still quoted at $6.0 $m/n$ per 100 kilos in the Rio Santiago, and today's rise in gold will probably put up prices still more. The shipments of maize from the Plate this season are unprecedented.

It was said this afternoon that a meeting of Deputies had taken place at the residence of one of the members of the Cabinet to discuss the expediency of declaring state of siege; it was added that opinions were very contradictory, and that the Government could not rely on much support in Congress to carry the measure.

Telegrams from Rio quote exchange on London at 10¼d.; this is a slight fall since last week's advices.

Owing to a family bereavement, Governor Costa could not visit the Mercado Central de Frutos; the visit is put off for a few days.

We see that the Municipality is thinking of imposing a tax on the produce markets, on the plea that all markets come within the jurisdiction of the municipal tax collector. All the meat markets, it is urged, pay a heavy contribution, and there is no reason why produce markets should be allowed to escape contribution. This thin end of the wedge of municipal taxation is calculated to make barraqueros and consignatarios wince. The only thing that seems to thrive at present is taxation in every shape and form: the people will be finally driven mad.

Municipal bonds rushed to 55 this afternoon: the conversion of the stock into consols has acted like an electric shock, and in some quarters there is quite an active demand for the bonds, in spite of all the red-tape at the municipal offices: the holder must go through a complicated evolution from day to day and from office to office, before he can effect conversion.

It is reported in the market that a leading local manufactory has been caught in the attempt of evading the Internal tax decreed last year. Furthermore, it is said, that the fines for such an attempt are so heavy that they exceed the capital of the concern in question.

The owner of the Rebecchino restaurant in the Calle Maipu, near the corner of Lavalle, has brought an action against the La Argentino City Improvement Works Company; it appears that the connection works carried out by the Company have damaged the foundations of the restaurant; which threatens to collapse; apart from the dangers of such a state of affairs, the customers of the restaurant have necessarily abandoned the favorite haunts of antipasto, tagliarini, and other Italian dainties.

The French packet Equateur is posted to leave on the 22nd for Europe. The fast steamer Coleridge, of the Lamport and Holt line, will also leave on the 22nd.

The gold market ruled dull and weak at the second ring, but the fall in the premium did not amount to much. Six thousand ounces were sold for to-morrow: the price opened at 52.90$, fell, and closed heavy at 52.70, say 223.80% premium. Sovereigns were quite nominal. Patriotic and Internal Bonds were stationary at the morning prices. La Plata Cedulas were weaker at 29.80 to 29.70. Spanish Bank Shares were firm at 108.

A GRANDIOSE AUCTION SALE
Notable Furniture
INIMITABLE
A Veritable Exhibition
Incomparable show of tapestry, admirable oil paintings, truly artistic by Salmini, Della Vedova, Brancaccio, Bourget, Manfredi and Mantegazza.
Superb door hangings, carpets. splendid piano, notable drawing room, sala, magnificent Venetian office suite admirably carved, girl's bedroom Louis XVI, a superb diming room suite in the style of Henri II., a grandiose bedroom suite artistically carved, bought in the Paris Exhibition; another bachelor's bedroom, billiard saloon, halls, zaguan etc.
On Monday 25th of July
at 12 noon (sharp)
I will proceed to sell at public auction for order and account of the owner
Mr. Ramon de Oliveira Cézar, all the valuable imported furniture which adorns his Sumptuous Palace
1244--CHILE--1244
between Salta and Santiago del Estero
Part of this rich furniture and of the artistic oil paintings were bought by Dr. Eduardo Wilde in Europe, and presented to Mr. Oliveira Cezar (his father in law.)
Connoisseurs and all parties desirous of obtaining masterpieces ought to take advantage of this really exceptional occasion. In order that those interested may have time to fully examine and impress on their minds the excellence of the tapestry, the costly make of the furniture and the exceptional artistic value of the paintings and bronzes, the house will be on exhibition from Saturday 18th, day and evening, till the day of the auction, that is, 3 clear days before the auction.
Catalogues can be obtained in the palace itself and in my offices from the same date on.
The following is only a partial precis of the articles to be sold:—
Drawing-Room
A superb drawing room suite, new, in the style of Louis XIV.; regal carpet, very expensive door hangings, artistic oil paintings, bevelled mirrors, bronzes, marbles and ornaments. Every article in this room is of the first class.
Parlour
A superb piano by Boardman and Gray (New York), grand upright, (as good as Steinway); fine tapestry, door hangings, mirrors, bronzes etc. I invite people of taste to examine the door hangings and tapestry of this room.
Office
The office suite ought to be inspected: imported from Venice, it is admirably carved. The suite is composed of 2 bookcases, 1 writing desk and 4 chairs, it is a valuable suite, made by the world-renowned firm of Cardiani & Co. from Venice. Also: door hangings, carpets and other ornaments.
Girl's Bed-Room
A French bedroom suite in the style of Louis XV., in walnut, very elegant. Also: other pieces.
The Grand Dining Room
In the style of Henri II., all solid walnut; it is a magnificent suite with 18 solid stamped leather chairs, metals, porcelain, valuable tea-set in solid silver, costly table service in solid silver. Every article in the dining room is of the best make.
The Grandiose Bed-Room
Was bought personally in the Paris Exhibition, and I can only request people of taste to inspect for themselves and admire the artistic importance of this suite.
The suite is composed of a large wardrobe in three compartments, 2 night stands, 1 grand bed, 1 washstand, 1 small dressing table, door hangings, canopy etc
Bachelor's Bed-Room
An American suite complete.
Billiard Room
A new billiard table, ivory balls, cues etc.
Then: Halls, Zaguan etc
Osler gas brackets in all the palace; a magnificent chandelier in the saloon and another in the dining room.
It is a sheer impossibility to describe the masterpieces that are about to be sold; but connoisseurs can visit the house, certain to find furniture and textiles and other objects unapproachable as works of art.
The auction will take place on Monday 25th inst. at 12 noon sharp, and the palace can be visited from Saturday 23rd, day and evening, from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.
Catalogues from the same date.
As I have already stated, part of the furniture and objects of art were bought personally by Don Eduardo Wilde in Europe, and presented to Mr. Oliveira (his father in law) so, I consider this occasion as an exceptional opportunity.

CHARLES OLMI

A REGAL RESIDENCE

MAGNIFICENT PALACE

15 squares from Plaza Victoria; built with first class materials. 10 rooms, bath rooms, halls, w. c., servants' room.

A most comfortable mansion, healthy, dry and well ventilated.

Trams at the door and corners; gas, pipe water and cloacas.

This Palace has cost a fortune

Also the furniture, which is perhaps one of the best lots of furniture in Buenos Ayres, it was all made to order to match the expensive wall paper and the various styles of rooms of the splendid residence.

The furniture of the drawing-room, dining-room, bedroom, office and hall, are of the very best make. Chandeliers, carpets, bronzes and marbles, all valuable.

This splendid property and all the furniture will be sold privately all in a lot at much under cost price and on most liberal terms, half of the amount agreed cash, and the balance on time, from 1 to 8 years.

To inspect the furniture and palace and further information please apply at my mart

HORSFORDS PHOSPHATIC BAKING POWDER

BARON LIEBIG, the world-renowned chemist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your preparation. The bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the conveniences this invaluable idea of yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind." It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our wheatfields had been increased by that amount.

What a wonderful result is this !"

y condiciones ventajosas para el pago.

Area a venderse, 233,762 hectareas, o sean 100 leguas kilometricas mas o menos.

Se remataran en la Capital Federal

En nuestra casa Alsina 480 y 482

El Miercoles 10 de Agosto

a las 2 de la tarde

Remataremos por cuenta y orden de una Sociedad y por liquidacion total de la misma, 233,762 hectareas, 66 areas y 39 centiareas ubicadas en la Provincia de Santa Fe, donde como todo el mundo sabe, existen las mas vastas y ricas colonias de agricultores de la Republica y cuyos habitantes no conocen la crisis que ha abrumado al resto de ellas, debido a las esplendidas y abundantes cosechas que les han dado estas sin iguales tierras.

La ubicacion de estas queda al Oeste del gran ferro carril que arranca de la capital de la republica y cruza toda la rica y poblada zona de colonias terminando en la ciudad de Tucuman.

Comiénsan las tierras que se ofrecen en venta, en la Estacion Arruño del ferro-carril mencionado y van hasta la Estacion Ceres de la cual distan 2 a 2 1/2 leguas estando el resto de ellas ubicadas sobre la Estacion Malbran extendiendose al Sud Oeste de la misma.

Todas estas tierras estan medidas, y mindiendose el resto por el Agrimensor Publico, Señor Eduardo Elquera, y seran entregadas amojonadas a todos y cada uno de los compradores una vez escrituradas.

Copiamos de una carta de dicho Agrimensor, lo pertinente a la fraccion que acaba de medir, que dice:—

"Respecto de la clase de tierra, se puede considerar de tener igual calidad de tierra vejetal de 50 centimetros de termino medio de tierra negra, terrenos muy altos, el agua potable obteniendose de 6 a 12 metros. No hay montes espesos, (exceptuando las tierras que estan al Norte sobre la Estacion Malbran donde los montes son muy abundantes y en partes impenetrables) sino isletas de arboles v. g. ñandubay, algarrobo, palo amarillo, algarrobo negro, etc. etc.

"El lote 85 es algo bajo terreno inferior.

"Los demas lotes son adecuados para la agricultura y se encuentaan rodeados de colonias es mas pobladas y otras en formacion y cerca a las Estaciones Arruño, Herzilia, Ceres, del gran ferro-carril de B. Aires a Tucuman.

"Las poblaciones que se advierten en el plano son pobladores que tienen animales de cria (vacuno, yeguarizo y ovino) en todas ellas hay jagueles para dar agua a las haciendas.

"La temperatura de esta region es la misma que reina en de donde dista unas 20 leguas."

Creemos que con estos datos nada tenemos que alegar sobre la bondad de estos terrenos que solo necesitan los brazos de hombres para hacerlos producir y con sus frutos sacar en un par de años doble de lo que se ha pagado por ellas.

La Provincia de Santa Fe que hace apenas 15 años, puede decirse, era casi desierta, hoy es un damero cruzado en todas direcciones por lineas ferreas pobladas por innumerables colonias que robosan de poblacion rica y activa; llenas de molinos a vapor, elevadores de granos, fabricas e industrias sin fin.

Antes del finde este siglo, la Provincia de Santa F
